

He'll learn about being a man from someone. Shouldn't it be you?

This Father's Day let's dedicate ourselves to shaping the hearts and minds of the next generation.

Men everywhere are taking a stand against violence and taking action.

We're teaching our sons early what it means to be a real man — that women deserve honor and respect and that violence never equals strength.

On Father's Day in 2003, we started Founding Fathers to show our commitment.

Join us and let's make this Father's Day the beginning of a safer world for all of our daughters and sons.

Today we honor these “founding fathers” who intend for this crucial beginning to give way to a new kind of society — where decency and respect require no special day on the calendar, where boys are taught that violence does not equal strength and where men stand with courage, lead with conviction and speak with one voice to say, “No more.”
